is essential. Yoga, beyond its physical postures, offers children a profound toolkit; the ability to regulate breath, anchor attention, and engage deeply with their inner world. These practices cultivate the mental and emotional strength required to navigate life's uncertainties with grace and confidence. Recognising this, visionary schools are embedding yoga and mindfulness into the fabric of daily life, not as occasional observances, but as foundational rhythms that foster holistic growth. This integration honours an ancient wisdom validated by modern science, guiding children toward authentic well-being and empowered learning. Investing in early mental well-being is the most transformative gift education can provide, and yoga remains the timeless compass lighting the path.

Sam International School, Sec-12, Dwarka Organises Orientation Day

Sam International School, Sector-12, Dwarka celebrated 'The Orientation Day' graced by Chairman Praveen Kumar and Honourable Director Karuna

Verma. The event provided parents with a comprehensive overview of the school's academic vision, cultural ethos, and year-long activities. The program commenced with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp, symbolizing the dispelling of ignorance and the ushering in of knowledge and wisdom. This auspicious moment was graced by chairman, director, and faculty members. Following the lamp lighting, a cultural presentation by the primary students enthralled the audience. The performances included Ganpati Vandana & welcome dance, that replicated the vibrant talents nurtured at our school. The most awaited segment of the day was the presentation of the school report and the yearly program schedule by Director, Karuna Verma. Overall, the Orientation Day was a grand success, reinforcing the spirit of collaboration between the school and parents, and laying a strong foundation for a productive and joyful academic year ahead.
