8.3	All UPS units should be in working conditions during the contract period. In case of failure of any equipment/machine during the contract period the same shall be repaired or got repaired from OEM of machines/equipment. Failure to carry out the repair/replacement by bidder or getting repaired from OEM for more than a period of 15 days shall attract provision of penalty as per clauses no. 8.1 & 8.2 above.
9	Arbitration
9.1	Dispute, if any, arising out of the contract, shall be settled by mutual discussion, failing which, the dispute shall be referred to arbitrator to be appointed by Secretary, OIDB and arbitration shall be considered as per Arbitration Act. Notwithstanding the place where the work under this contract is to be executed, the courts of Delhi alone shall have the jurisdiction over all matter concerning this contract.
10	Termination
10.1	For premature termination of the agreement, three months' notice from OIDB side and three months' notice from contractor's side shall be required in writing. Contractor shall vacate the premises, if desired by the OIDB and shall handover the same to OIDB along with all articles as may have been provided. The decision of the competent authority in OIDB shall be final and will be binding upon the contractor.
10.2	Contract can be terminated by either party after giving notice as above to the other party extendable by mutual agreement till alternate arrangements are made. However, OIDB reserves the right to terminate the contract without giving any notice in case the contractor commits breach of any of the terms of the contract. OIDB's decision in such a situation shall be final and shall be accepted by the contractor without any objection or resistance.
10.3	OIDB reserves the right to terminate the contract at any time as above if the services are found unsatisfactory resulting in the forfeiture of performance security deposit. OIDB also has the right to award the contract to any other agency at the cost, risk and responsibilities of contractor and excess expenditure incurred on account of this will be recovered by OIDB from security deposit or pending bill or by raising a separate claim. However, the agreement can be terminated by the contractor by giving three months' notice in advance. If the agency fails to give three months' notice in writing for termination of the agreement then three month's payment, etc. and any amount due to the agency from OIDB shall be forfeited.
10.4	Contract can be terminated by OIDB if any document/representation of the bidder is found to be incorrect/false and/or the contractor fails to perform its obligations and duties as enumerated in the tender document and/or fails to remedy the breach within 7 days of notice by OIDB.

10.5	If the contract is terminated by the contractor without giving stipulated period of notice or fails to observe the terms & conditions of the letter of award for the contract and the agreement signed by the contractor with OADB, the security deposit will be forfeited without prejudice to the OADB Management's right to proceed against the contractor for any damages that OADB suffers as a result of the breach of the aforesaid terms and conditions.
10.6	On termination of the contract, contractor will hand over all the equipment/articles etc. provided by OADB, in good working condition, back to OADB.
11	Force Majeure
11.1	Neither party will be liable for any claim on account of any loss, damage or compensation whatsoever, arising out of any failure to carry out the terms of this contract, where such failure is caused due to force majeure conditions like war, rebellion, mutiny, civil commotion, fire, riots, earthquake, drought, flood crop failure, or act of God or due to any restraint or regulation of the state or central government or a local authority. A notice of such occurrence is to be given to the other party in writing within 10 days from the date of occurrence of the force majeure condition, furnishing therewith documentary evidence supporting the invoking of the force majeure and will inform other party of the period for which the force majeure condition continued with documentary evidence thereof this effect.
